| | |
|---|---|
| From: | Big Joe 77 |
| To: | tcondotti@abc-law.com |
| Cc: | CACH; City Council |
| Subject: | CA Open Meeting Laws & CACH |
| Date: | Thursday, January 30, 2020 6:17:13 AM |

---

I read a FB post from the SCPD that briefly talked about a planned topic (Moratorium on Unregistered Vehicles) and gave a time and place.
https://www.facebook.com/santacruzpolice/posts/2735926043163371

My question is: ""Did the PD's posting of this event meet the minimum requirements of California's "Open Meeting Laws?"

Here's what I found in my review of the "Brown Act"

>Advisory committees are subject to open meeting requirements

>Meeting times and places must be noticed 72 hours in advance

>The Meeting's time, place, and agenda must be posted electronically the primary Internet Web site homepage of a city.

The "CACH" has a web page linked to the city's web site. It gives a schedule of planned meetings and archives past meetings. January 29th's meeting is not listed.

I'm pretty sure that this meeting (if it was held) is in violation of the Open Meeting laws (54954, 54954.2). I'd like to know why.

Sincerely,

--
Big Joe 77
Keepin' it Real
Santa Cruz, CA